Lee Co.

To the Honorable H.A.W.Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee
County, Virginia:

Humbly Complaining your Complainant, John M. Daugherty, would respectfully represent and show unto your honor that on the ___ day of ___ 19___ he was married to one Dora Thorp; that they lived together as husband and wife only a short time, when his said wife took up with another man, and went with him to the State of Kentucky, and lived with him there in adultery, but she afterward returned to this County and State. Your Complaint^{an} therefore charges that his said wife has been guilty of repeated acts of adultery, not only with the man, whom she lived with awhile in adultery, but with divers other persons.

Your Complainant alleges that he is now a citizen of Lee County Va, and has been for more than one year before the institution of this suit; that he has not lived with, nor co-habited with his said wife since knowledge of her acts of adultery; that said acts of adultery were committed without his procurement or connivance; and that they were committed within the last five years.

The prayer of your complainant is, that the said Dora Daugherty be made a party defendant to this bill, and answer the same but not on oath that being waived; that on a hearing of this cause your Complainant be granted a divorce Vinculo Matrimonii and that the ~~heretofore contracted and now existing~~ bonds of matrimony be absolutely dissolved, and your complainant prays for all other relief generally, that the nature of his case requires or to equity seem meet, and he will ever pray &c.

John M. Daugerty Plff.
against ~~the~~ In Chancery—
Dora Daugerty Defs.

This cause came on this day to be heard upon the bill of complainant and depositions filed thereof, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration of which, the court is of opinion that that plaintiff has proved the allegations of his bill, it is therefore adjudged ordered and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be totally dissolved and the plaintiff is forever divorced from his said wife, Dora Daugerty, a vinculo Matrimonii, and this cause is stricken from the docket.
